Results from the Week.

Pulse v Khandallah Thunderbolts: 11-3 - Player of the Day:

A hard fought game to the last whistle. We were so excited at the tight finish that at the end of the game we forgot to give out the player of the day. Everyone gave their all with great shooting, excellent defence and lots of hard work in the midcourt so that the player of the day is the whole team. Looking forward to another battle this weekend against the top of the league team, hoping to play well and finish off a great season on a high.

Magic v Redwood Roses: - Player of the Day: Julia McKenzie

This was a well matched skills game, with good defensive and attacking pushes coming from both teams. More Magic players are beginning to utilise strategic thinking by placing themselves ahead of the ball and into gaps. This is something for the Magic players to work on over summer, so that this becomes a natural behaviour on court. Congratulations to our player of the day Julia, for her contributions to a tight Defensive line and active Attack pushes, well done.

Stars v Newlands Mystics: Player of the Day: Eva Ablett-Thompson.

The Stars continue to show high spirits and loads of enthusiasm. Their individual and collective skills have developed hugely since the beginning of the season and their parents and coaches are very proud of how far they have come. Eva stood out in the weekend due to the excellent job she did defending the goal –loads of intercepts and some great passes back up the Court.

Steel v Khandallah Rockets: 15-2 Player of the Day:

An excellent 15-2 win against Khandallah Rockets. Great effort by all the team - one more game to go!

Mystics v QMC: 15-4 Player of the Day: Laura (19/8)

The Ngaio Mystics had a magical game in perfect weather, winning strongly against a team which, admittedly, was one girl down. The pace of the game has improved markedly over the past few weeks and the Mystics quickly moved the ball to their goal and were able to capitalise on many opportunities with some great shooting. Laura won player of the day, finding space to receive the ball and making some great intercepts.

Tui – Player of the Day: Elena Tinetti (19/8)

Wow, what a great tournament to end the season! The Tui team had two great games and have progressed as individuals and as a team over the last few months especially with their passing and getting free for the ball. There were some great intercepts made and also some awesome goal shooting. Player of the day this week was Elena Tinetti who has made a real effort getting free for the ball and using defending techniques - well done.

I hope to see the girls next year for another great season of netball.
