Tēnā koutou Families

Staff attended a very successful Kahui Ako Expo Day last Tuesday. There were keynote speakers as well as a variety of workshops held at Amesbury and Churton Park schools. We have a strong, collaborative Kahui Ako so it's very likely this collaboration will continue next year and beyond once the funding is pulled in line with Government changes.

Our senior syndicate kaiako have been involved in professional development around structured literacy, working on our approach to this following the junior school BSLA focus. Our literacy leader Michelle has also been participating so we can bring all our knowledge and experiences together to create our Ngaio School approach to structured literacy. We are being well supported by facilitators from Evaluation Associates.

We have finally received our confirmed ERO report and feel very proud of their findings. Across the sector, there is a lot of stress as the government keeps changing the goalposts and throws change after change at us. We have navigated this well and continue to provide your tamariki with an excellent education. The report confirms the quality of teaching and learning opportunities being offered at Ngaio School.

You can view the report on our website here and it will soon be published on the ERO website. We have also included the Guide to ERO school reports

NZSO Trip

by Tilly R

Bus four rolled up at the Michael Fowler Centre and we all poured into the concert hall.

The lights dimmed, it was so exciting! The conductor then walked in and stood right in the middle of the orchestra. I think I could be a conductor, it's just waving two sticks around, right?

Chris Lam Sam introduced himself and let the orchestra play Morning Mood. Even the name makes me feel calm. I nearly drifted to sleep. I waited for the next piece of music but who was he? The Sandman of course! He then poured sand onto a tray. He spread his fingers across the tray and made patterns and pictures to the music.

Adrenaline rushed through my body as the build up of the tension grew louder. I could feel the music vibrating under my feet. I felt scared, but excited.

As soon as the music stopped, Chris Lam Sam talked about the next music the orchestra was going to play. It was called: The Storm by Beethoven. That music made me get one billion goosebumps!

SAMOAN LANGUAGE WEEK CELEBRATIONS

Room 5 parent, Diana A helped with Samoan Week Celebrations in Room 5. Children dressed up in lavalava and lei. They danced and made artworks to celebrate Samoan Week.

Thank you, Diana!

An Epic Kids' Adventure Lands in Aotearoa!

All The Things I Wish I Could Be – Coming to Circa Theatre this July School Holidays!

Get ready for lift-off, laughs, and loud singalongs! This July, tamariki and their grown-ups are invited on a wild, musical ride with two lovable dads—Jeff and Tom—as they explore all the things they've ever dreamed of being. From All Blacks to ballerinas, monkeys to monsters, All The Things I Wish I Could Be is a joyful, high-energy celebration of imagination, friendship, and the freedom to be whoever (or whatever!) we want.

This brand-new Aotearoa-made adventure stars local legends Tom Knowles (Shrek in Shrek The Musical, Capital E national tours, Global Children's Entertainment Awards winner) and Jed Parsons aka Jeff Parsnips (award-winning indie singer-songwriter and rising star of the Kiwi kids music scene).

Packed with hilarious characters, playful chaos, and a full set of catchy original tunes performed live, this "very Kiwi" comedy is perfect for tamariki ages 3+—and guaranteed fun for the grown-ups who bring them.
